

Patrick Farms

Not just another pretty face...Patrick Farms is truly a unique and well designed golf course community. Tucked away off Greenfield Road in Rankin County, Patrick Farms offers luxurious living with quality lifestyle.

Easily accessible off I-20 East, Patrick Farms is the perfect community for the young professional and those interested in living just minutes away from the hustle and bustle of Jackson, yet convenient to shopping, churches, schools and libraries, medical and recreational facilities.

Outstanding features of Patrick Farms include: an 18-hole semi-private golf course designed by golf professional, Randy Watkins, a beautiful clubhouse (membership is optional), custom designed mailboxes, underground utilities, decorative street signs and a professionally designed entrance.

An architectural control committee and strict covenants protects the integrity of the community.

Patrick Farms...the latest and finest new residential subdivision and golf community in Rankin County. Come take a look and be enthralled by its enchantment!
